2005 Mantanzas Creek, Bennett Valley, Sonoma County

This is a smooth, delicious Merlot that will please even a non-merlot drinker. It has pretty, vibrant fruit with just enough acidity to keep it balanced. I’d go so far as to say it’s time to bring Merlot back. This might be the bottle that makes you a believer.

SPARKLING WINE

VEUVE CHATELAIN – Brut, ‘Yellow Label’, Reims, FR	NV	105

2005 Dante Rivetti ‘La Valletta’

100% Chardonnay from the Bricco di Neive region of Piedmont; this area is well known for its powerful red wines. Should it come as a surprise to find a chardonnay of equal power and complexity? This wine has a perfect balance of old and new world flavors. Not to be overlooked.

STE MICHELLE – Sauvignon Blanc, Horse Heaven Hills, WA	2007	34
PONZI – Arneis, Willamette Valley, OR	2006	40

2007 De Ponte Mélon Dundee Hills, Oregon

The Willamette Valley has a perfect climate for French varietal wines. It's a pleasure to note that some winemakers are using this to their advantage. Melon is a grape and it is used to make Muscadet, a wine the French LOVE to enjoy with oysters. It is crisp, light, dry and has beautiful acidity. I chose this wine because it is distinct. It stands out from the crowd as a beauty of genuine character

MEDIUM~FULL BODIED, AROMATIC

CHATEAU BENOIT – Müller Thurgau, Willamette Valley, OR	2007	37

STE MICHELLE – Columbia Valley, WA	2007	32
STE MICHELLE – ‘Ethos’, Canoe Ridge Estate Vineyard, WA	2006	74

2005 Chateau Ste Michelle ‘Ethos’ Chardonnay

As the pinnacle of Chateau Ste. Michelle Chardonnay, Ethos is old world complexity and elegance with concentrated Washington fruit. Sourced predominately from vines at Canoe Ridge Estate, the 2005 Ethos Chardonnay shows a delicacy typical of Canoe Ridge Estate fruit, but with complexity from natural fermentation. Aromas and flavors of green apple, lemon and toasted hazelnuts lead to a soft, elegant, restrained finish.

2005 Marchesi Alfieri, ‘Sostegno’, Rosso

This wine is a beautiful blend of Pinot Noir and Barbera. Try something different and be rewarded with an elegant, very Italian wine. If you enjoy this then try taking it up a notch and going for 100% Pinot Noir from the same producer; also on our list.

2003 San Felice, ‘Poggio Rosso’, Chianti Classico Riserva

This wine is a beautiful expression of what Tuscany has to offer wine lovers. The grapes are sourced from the famous “Poggio Rosso” or “Red Hill” on the San Felice estate, located in the southern region of the Chianti Classico. The wine is made only in the best years, the 2003 capturing the prestigious Tre Bicchieri, from Gambero Rosso.

In plain English, it is rich, delicious and worthy of praise.

2006 Inama – ‘Bradisismo’, Rosso, Veneto

The most famous wine of the Veneto is Amarone. If you are looking for big flavor without going into triple digits it's time to expand your thinking to include the Inama wines - I'm not saying they don't make expensive wines. What I've done is chosen a juicy red that will please you and your pocketbook. A blend of 70% Cabernet and 30% Carmenere. Delicious.

2006 Volker Eisele Napa Valley Cabernet

The grapes from the Volker Eisele Vineyards have long been sought for some of Napa’s most prized Cabernets. Eventually the growers got smart and decided to start making their own wine from this famous place. If you love Napa cabernet and you also like value, look no further. Oh, it’s also, and has always been, 100% organic.
